Lisa Fulton Named Chair, ASCA Board of Directors

Alexandria, VA (Sept. 26, 2023) – The American School Counselor Association (ASCA) Board of Directors has elected Lisa Fulton as its 2023–2024 chair.

Fulton is the assistant director of student services for Pennsylvania’s Carlisle Area School District, where she has worked since 2022. Prior to that she has been a school counselor in Myerstown and Hershey, Pa., and North East, Md., where she began her school counseling career in 1998. She earned her master’s degree from Loyola College in Maryland and a bachelor’s degree from Susquehanna University.

“Lisa has been a valuable member of the ASCA Board of Directors, serving as assistant chair for the past two years, and we look forward to working with her in her new leadership role,” said Jill Cook, ASCA executive director.

A former president of the Pennsylvania School Counselors Association (PSCA), Fulton is also a National Certified Counselor, a Certified Career Development Facilitator and a Certified Career Development Facilitator Instructor. She is a frequent presenter at ASCA and PSCA conferences.

Fulton has served on the ASCA Board of Directors since 2018.

About the American School Counselor Association

The American School Counselor Association (ASCA) is a nonprofit professional organization based in Alexandria, Va. ASCA promotes student success by expanding the image and influence of school counseling through leadership, advocacy, collaboration and systemic change. ASCA helps school counselors guide their students toward academic achievement, career planning and social/emotional learning to help today's students become tomorrow's productive, contributing members of society. Founded in 1952, ASCA has a network of 51 state and territory associations and a membership of approximately 43,000 school counseling professionals.
