

Media Contact

Kathleen Rakestraw

American School Counselor Association

(703) 683-2722, krakestraw@schoolcounselor.org

Eva Gibson Named Assistant Chair, ASCA Board of Directors

Alexandria, VA (Oct. 18, 2023) – The American School Counselor Association (ASCA) Board of Directors has elected Eva Gibson, Ed.D., as its 2023–2024 assistant chair. Gibson is an associate professor at Austin Peay University, where she has worked since 2019. Prior to that she has been an assistant professor at Tennessee State University and an adjunct instructor at Capella University. She was a school counselor in the Clarksville Montgomery School System, Tenn., where she began her school counseling career in 2006. She earned her bachelor’s and master’s degrees from Austin Peay University and her doctorate from Argosy University.

“Eva has been a valuable member of the ASCA Board of Directors, and we look forward to working with her in her new leadership role,” said Jill Cook, ASCA executive director. A former president of the Tennessee School Counselor Association (TSCA), Gibson is a frequent presenter at ASCA and TSCA conferences and is a member of ASCA’s Professional School Counseling journal Editorial Review Board. She has served on the ASCA Board of Directors since 2021.

About the American School Counselor Association

The American School Counselor Association (ASCA) is a nonprofit professional organization based in Alexandria, Va. ASCA promotes student success by expanding the image and influence of school counseling through leadership, advocacy, collaboration and systemic change. ASCA helps school counselors guide their students toward academic achievement, career planning and social/emotional learning to help today's students become tomorrow's productive, contributing members of society. Founded in 1952, ASCA has a network of 51 state and territory associations and a membership of approximately 43,000 school counseling professionals. For additional information on the American School Counselor Association, visit schoolcounselor.org.